

About GREAT OCEAN VOYAGES

Transatlantic Passage to Spain is the first in a new educational travel series, Great Ocean Voyages. Each Voyage features a premium cruise itinerary with extended time at sea, PLUS an exclusive on-board enrichment program. The series is operated jointly by Groups by Design and GTB Travel.

Groups by Design is a full service travel agency based in Louisville, Kentucky owned and operated by Patti George, who has more than 30 years in the travel industry. Patti specializes in educational group travel, working with leading travel suppliers around the world to provide a wide variety of thematic as well as traditional tour packages. The agency is affiliated with Platinum Travel of Louisville, a Virtuoso Travel Agency, giving clients access to top travel experiences.

GTB Travel is an international travel services company owned and operated by George T. Brown of Atlanta, Georgia. George has more than 35 years' experience planning and operating travel programs. He most recently served as President of Friendship Force International, which provides homestay programs in more than 60 countries. With a Ph.D. in International Relations from the University of Virginia, George is also a former professor and director of university international education programs.
